END OF CONSENT CALENDAR

NEW BUSINESS: (1-3)

1. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Nominations for the Office of BE Commission Chair: Tina Rollins nominated Ken McKinney (Vote 5/0); Ken McKinney was appointed Chairman of the Beautification-Environmental Commission.

Nominations for the Office of BE Commission Vice Chair: Tina Rollins nominated Ruby Lopez (Vote 5/0); Ruby Lopez was appointed Vice Chairman of the Beautification-Environmental Commission.

2. BEC 2021 Calendar of Events

*M/S/P Rollins/Miller – Motion to approve BEC 2021 Calendar of Events.

3. Residential Awards Discussion (Miller)

Commissioner Miller would like the Commission to create a Residential Award. This program would recognize residents who have a nice yard or do a good job at keeping up the appearance of their home. Commissioners can simply leave a business card with a note; this will be helpful in the upcoming Beautification Awards in August. The Commission would like public works to provide more trees to be planted on residential property.

OLD BUSINESS: (1-2)1. Kindness Awards (Rollins)

Commissioner Rollins reported Supervisor Doug Chaffee of Orange County fourth district has a kindness award program. Rollins stated she would like the BE Commission to create this type of award program in Buena Park. Doug Brodowski stated this program falls under the City's new Human Relations Committee.

2. Need for City Signs: 'No Dumping' ' Don't Litter'

The need for city signs was discussed at the October meeting. Doug Brodowski reported he is still working on more city signage to promote "No Dumping" and "Don't Litter".

COMMISSIONER COMMENTS / INFORMATIONAL ITEMS / FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS:

Chair McKinney would like to add CleanUp program so it will be ready to implement after Covid 19 restrictions.
